THE U. S. SENATORSHIP—OUR PLAN.

White Pine News, Dec. 5th.

It is now conceded, by those well-informed upon such matters, that Stewart and Fair, both of California, will be the two contestants for the next U. S. Senatorship from this State, and that it will be a lively moneyed fight, the longest purse knocking the persimmon.

Stewart will be strongly backed by the money and influence of the railroads. During the twelve years he was in the Senate, he was the subservient tool of the Pacific Railroad Companies, and did their bidding in the most servile manner, and during the next eight years they will require his services and his slavery more than they have ever before.

Again, John W. Mackay, who hates Fair with intense Satanic hatred, will throw his great wealth into the contest and thereby materially aid Stewart; and it is rumored that the cause of George W. Baker's late sudden flop was a part of the Stewart programme. They are both railroad attorneys, and a "fellow feeling makes them wondrous kind."

Fair will enter the arena with no particular following or influence, save the purchasing power of his great vault of U. S. Government Bonds, which are estimated at $50,000,000. It is said that he is very ambitious to succeed himself, and if placed upon his metal, will throw in his money by the barrel-full.

The candidacy of these two men is a shame and a disgrace to the State and an insult to the intelligence of the people. Neither one has any interest in the State or sympathy with the people, and if our representative in the U. S. Senate has to purchase the honor by the use of money and corrupt means, why not let it out to the highest bidder?

There are hundreds of men throughout the country who would pay $150,000 or $200,000 for the privilege of representing Nevada in the U. S. Senate for six years, and perhaps do it better than it has been done in the past.

Let us advertise the place for sale and give it to the highest bidder, and appropriate the money to the charitable institutions of the State. Insert something like the following advertisement in the leading papers:

WANTED, A RELIABLE AND competent man to represent Nevada in the U. S. Senate for a period of six years from the 4th of March, 1887. The place will be let to the highest bidder. For further particulars, address the Secretary of State, Carson City, Nevada, who will receive and open all bids.

N. B.—U. S. bondholders and railroad attorneys of California need not apply.

Let the Governor and Secretary of State open the bids, and when they ascertain who has put in the highest bid, the Governor can instruct the Legislature by message to elect that person to the Senate of the United States, and the thing is done!

Tennyson's New Book.

The New York Herald's London correspondent says that Tennyson's new book, "Tiresias and other poems," will soon be published. It contains twenty-six poems, many being new. "Tiresias," he says, though one of the most elaborate poems in the volume, does not show Tennyson at his best. Several editions have already been sold.

A Washington special states emphatically that a majority of the Republican Senators oppose a general agitation of the tariff question, and all reductions of duty at present. In a few days their views will be crystallized in some form, for the purpose of putting an end, if possible, to the evils arising from an apprehension of a reduction of custom duties.

The New York Post says the verdict of critics generally on "Grant's Memoirs" is that it ranks with the greatest histories of the world. He has, without knowing it, found a style which many famous historians have sought in vain.

The North American Union of Radicals, with headquarters at Milwaukee, has issued a memorial to Congress, asking that the constitution be so amended as to abolish the office of President.

Of all "last words" of distinguished men none are more poetically suggestive than those of Thomas A. Hendricks: "I am free at last."

CLEVELAND'S CRADLE.

The Romance Surrounding a Piece of Furniture.

A Memphis dispatch to the New York Times tells of the finding of the cradle in which President Cleveland was rocked. When Cleveland's father changed his place of residence the cradle fell into the hands of a man who afterward moved to Pulaski, Tenn. During the war his house was sacked by Morgan's men, and when he fled he threw the cradle into a creek. A short time afterwards two citizens of Pulaski, while fishing, found the cradle in the creek, and when they threw it into the wagon for a seat one end broke off and a written paper fell out. Enough was deciphered to show that it had been made by T. and S. Cleveland for Stephen Grover Cleveland, son of Aaron Cleveland. Richard, who made the discovery, informed the President who replied as follows: "I am fully persuaded that the cradle is genuine. I have often heard my mother speak of it, and since the war tried hard to get it, but heard that a German peddler had got it. I shall be glad to receive a photograph of it, and if you will part with the cradle itself, I will be glad to accept it on any moneyed terms you may desire."

FOR THE SENATE.

Carson Index.

The Enterprise, in a very handsomely conceived editorial recommends the election of Wm. M. Stewart to the United States Senate as the successor of Senator Fair. The reasons given are convincing and satisfactory to all who reflect upon our condition as a State. Mr. Stewart was perhaps the ablest, as he certainly was one of the most energetic Senators who ever represented Nevada. His ambition to serve the State again in the same capacity is under all the circumstances fortunate for Nevada. His attitude upon the Silver and Chinese questions are in thorough accord with the necessities of the times and the sentiments of the people. Mr. Stewart says that he desires to be of substantial aid to this State and believes that if entrusted with the honor and position which he seeks will be able to accomplish much good. The Republican party cannot do better than to endorse his candidacy and again elect him to the Senate.

Political Gossip.

Carson Appeal.

A correspondent from San Francisco writes a letter to a friend in Carson from which we take the following extract:

Wallace, Wren, Foley, Adams, Cassidy, Stoddard, Deal and other Nevada statesmen are seen daily at the Palace endeavoring to shape the politics of Nevada for 1886. Fair is keeping quiet but will be in the fight. The Powning boom is looking up somewhat. Stewart will lead (or try to make us follow) the Republican hosts to hell or victory. In fact everything looks toward a lively fight next season.

The Eureka Sentinel remarks:

A portion of the press of the State lose sight of one fact when talking about the Administration closing the Carson Mint, cutting down mail routes in the State, and the delay in erecting the building at Carson, for which $100,000 was appropriated by the last Congress. Every Congressional district in the Union, in order to get from the Government that to which it is entitled, must have a representative in Washington who has worth and resolute determination, and who will exercise these traits for his constituents. As it is, there is no one at the National Capital watching our interests or pushing the work that ought to be done in behalf of the State and individual residents. Judging from the way matters are drifting along those elected as our Representatives in the Congressional halls, with the exception of Congressmen, are at the Bay attending to personal matters. With our chief industry being threatened and other interests going to the wall we do not blame our contemporaries for showing anxiety and impatience, but the blame should be aimed with judgment.

A London dispatch says there has been elected up to 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon 324 Liberals, 225 Conservatives and 75 Nationalists. Rumors are current that Lord Salisbury, Premier, has resigned, but is not confirmed.

There is but little doubt that Governor Kinkaid will be prominent as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the Governorship. Many Nevada people would be glad of the opportunity to vote for him again and they will naturally push him forward.—Carson Index.

Classed by Mail.

A young Postmaster of a village Post-office was hard at work when a gentle tap was heard upon the door, and in stepped a bashful maiden of 16, with a money order, which she desired cashed. She handed it to the official with a bashful smile, who, after closely examining it handed her the money it called for. At the same time he asked her if she had read what was written on the margin of the order.

"No, I have not," she replied, "for I could not make it out. Will you please read it for me?"

The young Postmaster read as follows: "I send you $3 and a dozen kisses."

Glancing at the bashful girl, he said: "Now, I have paid you the money, and I suppose you want the kisses."

"Yes," she said, "if he has sent me any kisses I want them too."

It is hardly necessary to say that the balance of the order was promptly paid, and in a scientific manner at that, and eminently satisfactory to the country maiden, for she went out of the office smacking her lips as if there was a taste there she never encountered before. After she arrived home she remarked to her mother: "Eh, mother, but this Postoffice system of ours is a great thing, developing more and more every year, and each new feature added seems to be the best. Jimmy sent me a dozen kisses along with the money order, and the Postmaster gave me twenty. It beats the special-delivery system all hollow."—[Exchange.]

A Promising Boy.

Jeweler (to new boy)—Did you sell anything while I was out, Johnny?

New boy—Yes, sir. I sold six plain gold rings.

Jeweler (very much pleased)—Good, my boy. We'll make a first class jeweler of you one of these days. You got the regular price, of course?

New Boy—Oh, yes, sir. The price was marked on the inside, 18c., and the gentleman took all there was left, sir."

BREVITIES

Chancellor Derby returned to the Bay last night.

Prof. Thos. Price was a west-bound passenger last night.

Col. H. G. Shaw, editor of the Enterprise, was in town yesterday morning.

Paymaster Mills, of the V. & T., was here last night paying off at this end of the road.

Jimmy Lang, one of Carson's typos, passed through Reno last night on his way to California.

William Goeggel, the Reno watch-maker, is in Winnemucca, with a view of going into business there.

The JOURNAL's Illustrated Annual for 1886 is being prepared. Only room for a few more advertisements.

The Riverside Club gave its first social of the season at Armory Hall last night. It was a very pleasant affair.

A decision in the case of Alexander and Williams against Washoe county, is shortly expected from the Supreme Court.

District Attorney Torreyson and G. N. Folsom, of Carson, and Geo. Meiggs, of Wells, were passengers for the Bay last night.

Mrs. Walters, the San Francisco masquerade and theatrical costumer, will be in Reno soon, with costumes for the Knights' ball.

Those elegant specimens of art embroidery on exhibition in Levy's show window will be raffled off on the 31st. Tickets 50 cents.

The political Pilgrims are returning from the Nevada Mecca—San Francisco. Senator John Dennis passed through for home yesterday morning.

The wife of Senator Jones is the guest of Mrs. H. M. Yerington, of Carson. The Senator is expected to arrive in Gold Hill on Saturday.

The Anti-Chinese question is the all absorbing one of the Pacific Coast and it seems that the right method for the expulsion of the Mongolians is being adopted.

Reports from various parts of Michigan and Wisconsin indicate a heavy snowfall day before yesterday and night before last. Trains were badly delayed in several places by drifts.

Shooting at Virginia.

About 6 o'clock yesterday morning Daniel Delany was shot by Patrick Linehan, night policeman, and probably fatally wounded. Delaney, who was coming from work at 1 o'clock, went to the Delta saloon, and at the time of the shooting was well under the influence of liquor. His friends tried to get him home, but being unable, Officer Linehan took him in hand for the same purpose, when a scuffle ensued. Five shots were fired, two of them taking effect, one on the right side below the nipple and the other in the pit of the stomach. Linehan claims the shooting was done in self defense. Delany, who had but just started to work, after a severe attack of pneumonia, has a wife and five children. The general impression is that the shooting was unjustifiable.

The Walker Lake Reservation.

The Hawthorne Bulletin says gradually the gold discoveries are approaching the Reservation lines and the Indians are on the watch. As matters are at present, the only use to which most of the Reservation territory could be put, would be evasion of service of arrest by a county Sheriff.

No Vacant Houses.

It is said that there is not a vacant dwelling house in Winnemucca. There is a family who want to rent a house, and have money to pay for it, but they can find none.

Mrs. Sweet, late Pension Agent at Chicago, was married November 28th to Mr. Carter, a merchant of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. When she left office she said she was going into business.

Indian Troubles.

The Silver State says Naches, the Piute Chief, has been to McDermitt and Willow Creek looking after his people. He says an Indian, named Charley, killed his squaw near Willow Creek, hid her remains and pretended that she had been stolen by another Piute. The remains were found a week ago and since then it has been ascertained that she was killed by her buck. All the Indians in Quin River Valley are afraid of Charley. They think he is liable to kill an Indian or a white man at any time, and they want the civil or military authorities to arrest him and send him to Prison or Fort Alcatraz. An Act of the last Legislature extends the criminal laws of the State to and over the Indians therein, and it seems that under that Act Charley ought to be prosecuted for murder, as it is said he now admits that he killed his squaw.

An Outrage.

The White Pine News says: When last Tuesday's mail brought us the above unsavory news, our people could hardly believe that the authorities at Washington would for a moment contemplate such a move. Indeed, we of Taylor, owing to our growing population and business, had in view, at no distant day, applying for a daily mail. And we think the demand would not be unreasonable. By this cutting us down to a semi-weekly is an outrage we should not tamely submit to. Our people should at once hold a mass meeting, set forth our just claims, and send such a strong and lengthy petition to Washington as will deserve consideration. Our Senators (if we have any there) and Representative in Congress should be immediately telegraphed to to stay this unjust postal order till we have time to present our claims in due form to the Post Office Department, when we feel confident the order will be rescinded, at least so far as it applies to Taylor. Let us go to work at once—no time to lose—and get a dispatch through to Washington, asking for a "stay of proceedings," for if the service is once out down, it will take no end of time and red tape to restore it.

A Grand Scene.

The Taylor Reflex says: For several mornings during the fore part of the week the whole of Steptoe Valley, both north and south as far as the eye could reach, was covered with a dense fog. This fog, hanging from five to six hundred feet below our town, presented all the appearance of a veritable living ocean, and when the sun rose above the Schellbourne Range and cast its first rays upon this imitation sea the effect was grand and sublime. All the prismatic colors of the rainbow were presented to the admiring beholder, and the Eagan mountain on the opposite side of the valley seemed to reach to the very heavens. For grand, indescribable scenery, Nevada beats the world!

Emerald's Revenue.

The Walker Lake Bulletin says: The taxes were pretty closely paid up this year. The amount received up to day of delinquency was: Property tax, $36,274 91; poll tax, $1,192; dog tax, $31; total, $37,517 91. The revenue which will be derived from proceeds of mines during the next year will be much greater than it has been, and the County Treasury will soon be in a very healthy condition.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. ## Range Cattle That are Being Fed for Market.

Cheyenne Stock Journal.

Never before have so many of our Northwestern range cattle owners been engaged in feeding cattle for market as at present. This branch of the business is a comparatively new feature to our people, but it appears to be what the thing is coming to, slowly but surely owing largely to the over stocking of ranges, and we are glad to see a disposition to give the matter a thorough test on the part of those to whom it must prove of the greatest benefit—the cattle raisers. A number are feeding cattle for the first time this season and to them the work partakes of the nature of experiment, but what encourages them is the fact that those who have fed heretofore have put in larger numbers of feeders this season.

The Union Cattle Co., of this city, are by all odds the heaviest feeders up to date. Their "fattery," as it is called, is an immense establishment at Gilmore, Neb., constructed at great expense, and they will feed 7,500 head on warm food this winter. Haas & Haley, near Laramie City, will feed 3,000 head of steers having put up 7,000 tons of hay at their ranch for that purpose. The Frontier Land and Cattle Co. will feed 2,500 head at their new establishment at Herman, Nebraska, and 800 head at the ranch on Chug Water. The Swan Land and Cattle Co. are feeding 2,000 head at the Omaha distillery pens which they have leased for the season. The Bay State Cattle Co. are grain feeding 1,500 head at North Bend. John Bratt & Son have already placed 800 head at North Platte, and expect to put in 700 more. The Converse Cattle Co. is grain feeding 850 head at Burnett, Neb., and the Benjamin & Weaver Co. 540 at the same place. Guthrie & Oskamp have 865 head at Clark, Neb. At Atlantic the distillery pens are being used by Teschemacher & DeBillier who have in 900 head. Whipple & Hay 400 and Fisher & Co. 200. Teschemacher & DeBillier are also feeding 300 head at Stanton, Neb. The Anglo-American Cattle Co. is feeding 1,500 head at Sidney, on both grain and hay. The Powder River Cattle Co. is feeding 700 head, and Beckwith, Quinn & Co. 600 head in Nebraska and 300 head at their ranch. The Sand Creek Co. has up 800 head, Douglas-Willan Sartoris Co. 500, Dole Bros. 500, and Emerson Bros. & Kennedy 300. The Hord Bros. are feeding 250 at Central City, Neb., and the Pratt & Ferris company 584 at Randolph, Iowa.

Besides all these mentioned, about 30,000 head, Ovid Plumb, of Greeley, will feed 40 head, while several others in that vicinity will feed small bunches. Near Fort Collins, John G. Coy will fatten about 80 head. Norman & Taylor and others on the Poudre will also feed more or less. In the vicinity of North Platte, Russell Watts is feeding 400 head, B. Hershey 450, M. C. Keith 200, and M. Burks & Sons 200. A few hundred head are being stall-fed in Utah. In Nevada the Clover Valley Land & Cattle Co. is fattening several hundred head with alfalfa hay put up on the ranch, and a few others have up small bunches. In Idaho, Balantine & Co. are feeding some 500 head, and others are putting small bunches through the fattening process.

Taken altogether, so far as we are advised, it is safe to say that $40,000 head of cattle are now being fed by our range people. Our Chicago correspondent, Mr. A. C. Halliwell, who is good authority upon such matters, estimates the number of cattle being stall-fed, exclusive of the establishment at Gilmore, at 65,000 head. Of these there are enumerated above 3,200 head. After making this deduction we find that about 103,000 head of cattle are now being fed for market in the district named. This is exclusive of all that may have gone to farmer in the States to the east of us, which it will be difficult to estimate although we believe the number smaller than many imagine, owing to the bad success last year on account of the extremely cold weather and a lack of disposition and means to prosecute the business this year.

Our figures, then, show that about 40,000 head of cattle are being fed by the rangemen of the Northwest.

In this connection it is remarkable that a considerable number of cattle are being fed on the ranches of Colorado and western Kansas, but as to these we are at present unable to give any figures that might be considered reliable.
